“Special Olympics has pushed me out of my comfort zone and has taught me not to fear failing. Just get back up and try again”

Abbigale volunteers with Tanganyika Wild Life Park, Oak Street Elementary Carnival, St. Patrick’s Day Parade, and numerous projects with the National Honor Society.

Special Olympics has allowed Abbigale to be more active and meet new people and develop lifelong relationships. She enjoys helping people, and loves animals.

Abbigale was inducted into the National Honor Society at Eisenhower High School in Goddard and is certified in Microsoft Word and Excel.
