“Attending the 2018 USA Games lets me know that I can accomplish my dreams if I work hard.”

Jaime is a high school student and requires community service hours in his class. He helps clean the school cafeteria, stacks chairs and helps take out recycling.

Special Olympics has given Jaime the ability to make better friends, mingle with them, and has shown him what teamwork truly is. He has learned about healthy eating choices and exercising.

Jaime’s accomplishments showcase his commitment - He has earned varsity letters in basketball and soccer, as well as earning A’s & B’s in school.
