“Attending the USA Games is a big deal to me, and it means I get to be a part of something great.”

Karly juggles school, work and volunteering. Some of her volunteer activities include assisting with swimming lessons and helping her local rotary club with any assistance that they need.

Special Olympics has helped Karly become more patient and more involved at her school.

Karly’s accomplishments showcase her leadership– She is proud of being the class president, having a 4.0 GPA, being on the honor roll, and a member of the National Honor Society.
