“Attending the USA Games will be an incredible experience because it is something new, exciting, and great for my school and local Special Olympics program.”

Maryam has worked for Cam Great Adventure for the past year. In the future, she hopes to become a psychiatrist or surgeon. Every year, she volunteers during the summer at the Successful Sounds summer camps for autistic children, along with volunteering at the Ronald McDonald house for 1 hour per month for the past 2 years.

Special Olympics has helped Maryam gain new friends, role models, and attain more opportunities. Maryam enjoys playing volleyball and has been to 7 countries.

Maryam's accomplishments include: President of National Honor Society, an Honor Roll student, and member of varsity volleyball team at her school.
