“I am honored to be going to the USA Games in Seattle. Attending the USA Games means that I will get better at the sport!”

Natasha has been working at Goodwill for almost 5 years. She is extremely proud of her job and takes it very seriously.

Special Olympics Kansas has given Natasha the tools to become more independent and to be a team player. She also feels it has helped her get into shape and become more fit.

Natasha's received employee of the month (March 2016) at her job, earned her high school diploma, client of the year in 2012, and Job Club president at the BLDC.
