“I am excited to attend the USA Games and have a great time in Seattle while competing with my friends and other athletes!”

Sarah has worked at NIC for the last 2 1/2 years. She says that her dream job is to work on The Price is Right game show!

Special Olympics has given Sarah the chance to stay busy with her friends and be involved in sports.

Sarah is proud of lettering for her school’s band for 4 years, receiving a score of “2” at her state band competition, and receiving the “Marching Band Most Courageous” award during her senior year.

She loves roller coasters and indoor sky-diving.
