“I have worked very hard over the last several years, and attending the USA Games to represent Team Kansas has made all of the work worth it!”

Steven’s dream job is to become a chef.

Special Olympics has allowed Steven to learn how to control his temper and be a happier person. He has also been able to come out of his shell and not be as anxious about making new friends.

Steven is proud of being the 2016 New Hope Bulldogs Athlete of the Year!
