

Help Wanted!

Professional, flexible, dynamic, well-organized, accurate, self-starter, independent thinker, upbeat, energetic, multi-tasked, creative team players for the Polar Plunge Committee benefiting Special Olympics Kansas (SOKS). The Polar Plunge is a Kansas Law Enforcement Torch Run event that benefits Special Olympics Kansas athletes. Polar Plunges and Struts are held across the state in January and February.

As a committee member for the Polar Plunge, we ask that you make a commitment to contribute to the committee by:

- Attending committee planning meetings and the event wrap up meeting
- Working with other volunteers and SOKS staff to meet committee goals
- Assisting at event and with the event set up and tear down
- Providing new ideas to enhance the event
- Assisting with event promotion
- Assisting with thank you letters at event conclusion
- Assisting with media interviews as needed
- Following SOKS policies
- Communicating with the entire team and staff throughout the planning of event
- Making an ask to businesses for items such as cash sponsorships/donations; in-kind donations including prizes, media support, food, printing, all items that will keep our expenses minimal; additional volunteers; plungers and plunge teams; etc.
- Thinking OUTSIDE the BOX!
- Having FUN and MAKING it FUN for participants!!!!

Time commitment (may vary for each committee):

Usually one meeting per month is held and we try to keep the meetings to one hour.

One - two hours per month on committee tasks.

Set up before event, day of event and tear down.
