Application Deadline:

February 28, 2019

General Overview

The Special Olympics Kansas Hall of Fame recognizes longevity and achievement of outstanding SOKS athletes.

Review Process

Nominations received prior to the application deadline will be reviewed by Special Olympics Kansas staff members. Up to five (5) total athletes will be selected for induction into the Special Olympics Hall of Fame at Summer Games opening ceremony. Previous nominees are not automatically forwarded to the next year.

Announcement of Winner

Families and/or coaches of the winners of this award will be notified via phone, letter and/or email in April 2019. They may choose how to inform the athlete. Some families choose to keep it a secret until the Summer Games opening ceremony. Others choose to tell them right away. The winners will be recognized during the opening ceremony and announced on social media and on the kssso.org website.
